October 29th Update – Public Health Announces Five Additional Cases in Las Animas County and One Additional Case in Huerfano County

(October 29, 2020)- Public Health has confirmed five new positive cases of COVID-19 in Las Animas County and one additional case in Huerfano County.

Las Animas County has a total case count of 91 with 47 active cases.

- Male in his 30's who is symptomatic
- Female in her 60's who is symptomatic
- Male in his 20's who is symptomatic
- Female in her 20's who is symptomatic
- Female in her 40's who is symptomatic

Huerfano County has a total case count of 35 with 5 active cases and 2 deaths.

Investigation and contact tracing are still being conducted by the public health nurses.

Las Animas County is at a critical point and we all need to be diligent in the actions we take to protect yourself, your family, your employees, and your community. Together we can keep our schools open, our businesses open, and our winter season on target. Additional preventative measures we can all take include:

- Reduce how often you socialize with non-household members
- Informal gatherings are limited to 10, but consider limiting activities to household members only
- Work from home if possible
- Stay home when you are sick, even if you only have a minor symptom
- Encourage others to take some preventive actions to help flatten the curve now so that we can have a successful winter!
