

CIRCLE OF PARENTS® GROUPS OPERATE ACCORDING TO AN EVIDENCE INFORMED MODEL AND ARE ADAPTABLE TO MEET GROUP NEEDS AND FOCUS AREAS.

Circle of Parents and "Sharing Ideas. Sharing Support" are registered trademarks of Circle of Parents, Inc.

LOCATION

Circle groups can exist anywhere that is accessible and open to parents. Typically, groups are in family resource centers, schools, health clinics, religious institutions, etc.

FREQUENCY

Circle groups typically meet once a week, at no cost to any participant. Consistent attendance is encouraged to develop a support network and increase comfort within the group.

CONTENT & FOCUS AREAS

Groups are open-ended and topics are at the discretion of the group with the guidance and support from the Parent Lead and Facilitator. The Circle of Parents Model is adaptable to meet general or specialized needs of families - such as groups for parents in recovery from addiction, parents of children with Autism, fathers, kinship caregivers, and more!

LEADERSHIP

Circle groups are facilitated by a Facilitator and Parent Lead. Both the Facilitator and Parent Lead receive initial and ongoing training, support and in-depth technical assistance.
